Costa del Sol, Cabopino

In the popular Artola, near Cabopino, you will find this exclusive contemporary villa that combines elegance, space and comfort on three floors. The location is exceptional: nestled between nature and coastline, you can enjoy peace, privacy and a beautiful view of the sea and greenery.

The villa has five spacious bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom, supplemented by two additional guest toilets. Thanks to the high ceilings and large windows, the house is bathed in natural light, which creates an airy and open feeling in every room. The modern open kitchen forms the heart of the living space and seamlessly connects to the stylish living and dining room.

On the ground floor you will find a versatile space that is ideal for use as a gym, home cinema or relaxation room, in addition to a practical laundry room and an indoor garage with space for two to three cars. Underfloor heating is present throughout the house, which contributes to the pleasant living comfort. The fully equipped bathrooms and high-quality finish radiate pure luxury.

For your convenience, there is a lift connecting all floors, and outside, a private heated pool awaits you to enjoy the Mediterranean climate all year round.

This villa is a unique opportunity for those looking for a stylish, modern home in a privileged location – just a short distance from the beach, the Cabopino marina and all the amenities of Marbella.
