A new, exclusive collection of fifteen luxury villas is rising between the blue Mediterranean Sea and the green landscape of the most beautiful golf courses on the Costa del Sol in Bel Air – a prestigious residential area on the popular New Golden Mile, between Marbella and Estepona. These homes embody modern Mediterranean living: spacious, light, elegant and ideally located.

Each villa has been designed with a focus on natural light, flowing layouts and a harmony between indoor and outdoor living. The open-plan living areas, with ceilings of almost six metres high, create an impressive sense of space. Thanks to floor-to-ceiling windows, the interior is constantly connected to the surrounding nature and the beautifully landscaped gardens. The fully equipped designer kitchen, equipped with high-quality Miele appliances and designed by KOK Studio with SANTOS furniture, forms the heart of the home. From the living room you can walk straight outside, where various terraces invite you to relax under the sun, with the stylish private pool and an elegant pool bar as the eye-catcher.

The villas feature four spacious bedrooms, each with an en-suite bathroom and a luxurious feel. The master suite occupies an entire wing of the upper floor, with a custom-made walk-in wardrobe by the renowned brand UECKO and a luxurious bathroom. Also on the ground floor is a comfortable bedroom with direct access to the terrace. Everywhere in the house you feel the tranquility, refinement and thoughtfulness that make these homes unique.

The basement offers a multifunctional space of no less than 155 m², with plenty of possibilities for a spa, fitness room, cinema, games room or extra bedrooms - all bathed in natural light thanks to large windows and a patio. The roof terrace with private plunge pool and outdoor kitchen completes the picture and offers breathtaking views over the surrounding landscape.

Situated in a quiet, easily accessible area, close to schools, shops, beach clubs, top restaurants and golf courses, these villas offer a perfect balance between serenity and luxury. Whether you are looking for a permanent home, a second home by the sea or a smart investment in one of the most sought-after regions of southern Spain, this project guarantees comfort, elegance and quality of life at the highest level.
