Welcome to this impressive frontline golf villa, ideally located in the heart of Nueva Andalucía, with panoramic views of the exclusive Las Brisas Golf Club. Named after the enchanting sunsets that form the backdrop every evening, this west-facing villa combines an unparalleled location with refined luxury and timeless design.

The beautifully landscaped garden is an oasis of tranquillity and elegance, with a private swimming pool that invites relaxation all year round. Around the pool, a comfortable lounge area and an atmospheric pergola with a bespoke bar and outdoor kitchen provide the perfect setting to enjoy long, balmy evenings in good company.

Inside, an interior that is both stylish and serene awaits. The light Crema Sara floors and neutral colour tones create a warm and refined atmosphere. The unique roof shape is reflected in the high ceilings of the living room, creating a sense of space and architectural elegance. The dining room seamlessly connects to the custom-designed kitchen, fitted with high-end appliances, ample storage space and a layout that perfectly combines functionality and aesthetics.

The villa offers multiple guest bedrooms with ensuite bathrooms, spread across the ground floor and basement, each designed with comfort and modern luxury in mind. The basement level houses exceptional wellness and relaxation facilities, including an indoor swimming pool, a spa with sauna and hammam, an entertainment room and a private cinema. For practical convenience, the property benefits from an integral garage with space for three cars, accessible via a private access.
