Costa del Sol, Torrox

Discover these modern and elegant apartments in Torrox, where contemporary design, functionality, and energy efficiency combine to create a comfortable and stylish living environment. Each apartment is built with a solid reinforced concrete structure and features advanced thermal and acoustic insulation, ensuring a pleasant indoor climate and optimal tranquility year-round.

The interiors are characterized by large porcelain floor tiles, bright open spaces, and refined finishes. The bathrooms exude modern elegance thanks to high-quality porcelain wall and floor tiles, stylish chrome faucets, and walk-in showers with resin shower trays and glass walls. Anthracite-colored aluminum windows and textured sliding doors not only provide a contemporary look but also ensure durability and excellent insulation. The white lacquered interior doors and built-in wardrobes give the entire property a timeless, fresh look.

Each apartment is pre-equipped for air conditioning via an energy-efficient aerothermal system, which also provides hot water. This sustainable system reduces energy consumption and contributes to an environmentally conscious lifestyle without sacrificing comfort.

The residential complex offers everything you need for modern Mediterranean living: a communal pool for relaxing, beautifully landscaped green areas, and private parking equipped with electric vehicle charging stations. Here, design, comfort, and sustainability combine to create a harmonious living experience in Torrox.
