Costa del Sol, Fuengirola

Discover an exclusive new-build project of 25 contemporary homes where architecture, sustainability, and well-being come together in a unique lifestyle on the Costa del Sol.

Each home is designed with maximum attention to comfort and space. The generous layouts, large windows, and thoughtful orientation ensure an abundance of natural light and a pleasant, open living experience. The high-quality finish is immediately striking: large-format porcelain floors, fully equipped designer kitchens, and a modern climate control system with underfloor heating and aerothermal systems. Additionally, smart home automation ensures an efficient and connected home that meets today's needs.

Here, living is more than just a house. Each home features a private swimming pool, an intimate place to relax and enjoy peace and privacy all year round.

The communal amenities also elevate living comfort. Think of a fully equipped gym, an outdoor pool with a sun terrace, and versatile spaces perfect for working, meeting, or unwinding. The project boasts an A energy label, guaranteeing maximum energy efficiency, sustainability, and lower operating costs. All this in an exceptional setting where nature, privacy, and proximity to all amenities are perfectly balanced.

This is much more than just living. It is a well-thought-out living concept for those seeking exclusivity, design, and well-being in every detail of daily life.
