Discover an exclusive new development in the prestigious Finca Cortesín, one of Europe's most renowned residential and golf resorts. Here, everything revolves around tranquility, privacy, and refined living in an environment where nature, luxury, and comfort come together perfectly. Every day begins with panoramic views of the golf course, the surrounding valleys, and the Mediterranean Sea, while the hustle and bustle of everyday life seems far away.

This stylish residence consists of 84 luxurious apartments with two or three bedrooms. There is a choice of ground-floor apartments with private gardens, apartments on the intermediate floors, and exclusive penthouses. All homes are designed with great attention to light, space, and living comfort. Large windows allow natural light to stream in abundantly and create a seamless connection between inside and outside.

The generous terraces, which can reach up to 225 m² depending on the type of home, form a true extension of the living space. Here, you can enjoy the mild climate of the Costa del Sol all year round, a breakfast with a view of the golf course, or an aperitif while the sun slowly sets behind the hills.

The finishings are also of a high standard. The homes feature fully equipped kitchens with high-end appliances, premium materials, porcelain floors, and excellent thermal and acoustic insulation. Furthermore, thanks to the energy-efficient aérothermal system, you enjoy a comfortable indoor climate with lower energy consumption.

The residence was designed as an exclusive oasis where relaxation takes center stage. Residents have access to two beautiful outdoor swimming pools with sun terraces, a wellness area with a sauna and hammam, a fully equipped gym, and a stylish social club for gatherings and private events.

Living at Finca Cortesín also means enjoying an exceptional lifestyle. The resort is internationally renowned for its award-winning golf course, luxury hotel, exclusive beach club, gourmet restaurants, and extensive wellness facilities. Everything is in place to make life just that little bit more pleasant.

The location in Casares is an additional asset. Just a few minutes from the beaches and with Marbella about a half-hour drive away, this project combines tranquility and exclusivity with excellent accessibility. Malaga International Airport is also within easy driving distance.
