Costa Calida, Los Alcazares

In the charming coastal town of Los Alcázares, on the sun-drenched Costa Cálida, a new development is rising that perfectly combines luxury living and tranquility. Located on the first line of the renowned 18-hole La Serena Golf course, you can enjoy daily views of green fairways, picturesque lakes, and the refreshing breeze of the Levante wind.

This exclusive residence consists of elegantly designed apartments and detached villas, where every detail is focused on comfort, style, and functionality. The apartments are available with two or three bedrooms and offer spacious terraces or private solariums, ideal for enjoying the Mediterranean climate. The communal gardens with a large swimming pool form the heart of the project, where residents relax and gather in an oasis of peace and light.

For those seeking even more privacy and space, the single-story villas offer a perfect solution. With three bedrooms, a private pool, garden, storage, and private parking, they form a harmonious transition between indoor and outdoor spaces, offering unobstructed views of the golf course. Thanks to their well-thought-out layout and high-quality finishes, they are perfectly suited for both permanent residence and holiday homes.

All homes are built with an eye for sustainability and comfort. From aluminum joinery with thermal breaks and motorized shutters to energy-efficient LED lighting and pre-installed air conditioning: every detail contributes to a modern, low-maintenance living environment.

With the beach just 1.5 km away, Murcia International Airport within 25 km, and the center of Cartagena a half-hour drive, this location is excellently connected without compromising on tranquility or the experience of nature. Whether you enjoy golfing, sunbathing, hiking, or simply enjoying the outdoors: this place offers it all.

Experience the ultimate living feeling between the sea and greenery. Make an appointment today and discover your dream home in Los Alcázares.
