Welcome to the luxurious real estate paradise of Real de La Quinta, where 18 beautifully designed sustainable villas shine in an unparalleled location. Enjoy breathtaking views of Gibraltar and Africa, framed by Marbella's majestic La Concha mountain and the exclusive La Zagaleta Country Club & Golf estate. This idyllic estate borders a UNESCO nature reserve and is only 15 minutes from bustling Marbella.

Imagine a life where luxury merges with natural splendor. The Lake Club, with an attractive bar and restaurant, is the center of refined relaxation. An executive golf course embraces a picturesque lake, while a wellness centre, a jogging/cycling track and tennis and padel courts ensure a harmonious balance between well-being and recreation. Add a charming boutique hotel, an equestrian center and an attractive commercial area with shops to this wealth of amenities.

In this lush location, individual plots are generously allocated, and the careful orientation of each villa guarantees uninterrupted sea views and complete privacy. Here it's all about the views, not only throughout the development, but each villa is perfectly positioned to maximize the panoramas. Inside each villa, nothing stands in the way of the view. The floor-to-ceiling windows slide smoothly into the wall, extending the living space to the terrace.
