Costa Calida, Murcia

Step into a world of timeless elegance and unparalleled beauty at these villas, set amid the lush surroundings of a beautiful golf resort, a breathtaking retreat just outside the bustling city of Murcia. Discover the enchanting serenity that this place offers, where every moment is a symphony of peace and joy.

Surrounded by lush greenery and sparkling water features, these detached villas offer a true oasis of tranquility. Each villa, with 2 or 3 bedrooms, embraces nature with carefully designed details, while natural elements such as a private pool and a dedicated beach pool add a sense of luxury to each plot.

Each villa is steeped in high-quality finishes and crafted with the finest materials, thanks to our unique and innovative construction system. This system not only offers high energy efficiency (A-label), but also eliminates problems such as cracks and moisture problems, making your villa a haven of sustainable luxury.

With three different villa models, including XL variants, and the ability to choose materials during the construction phase, each villa is a unique masterpiece tailor-made to your wishes.

Enjoy life at the foot of a beautiful nature reserve, surrounded by relaxing walking paths and overlooking the traditional square, the parador, the beating heart of the golf resort. Here you will find a restaurant, golf pro shop, fitness room, and padel and tennis courts, all within easy reach.
