This enchanting villa impresses with its unique architectural design, with a domed structure as the heart of its exterior. The white walls and traditional Andalusian roof tiles add a touch of classic charm. The property offers a range of outdoor terraces, ideal for al fresco dining, BBQs and relaxing chill-out areas, allowing residents to experience Marbella's pleasant weather all year round. Surrounded by lush greenery, the villa ensures maximum privacy from neighboring properties. The signature swimming pool, connected to a Jacuzzi, adds visual appeal.

The circular theme continues throughout the property, seen in the arched windows on the ground floor that connect the living space to the terrace. Inside, the interiors exude elegance with refined decorations and an eye for detail. Lush wooden floors and arches add character and complement the circular theme of the property. The open floor plan facilitates a seamless transition between the interior spaces, while generous windows fill the property with natural light.

The fully equipped kitchen showcases impeccable craftsmanship that blends beautifully with the selection of marble and a beautiful central kitchen island. The informal living room features a long sofa that mimics the curved shape of the dome, creating an ideal space for family gatherings. Each of the 5 bedrooms has been carefully designed with priority given to luxury and comfort. The master bedroom is an epitome of elegance, with a luxurious bed and direct access to a private terrace.

The master bathroom features a beautiful double sink, walk-in shower and bath, decorated with the same beautiful marble as in the kitchen. Situated on a spacious plot in the sought after area of Aloha, the villa offers breathtaking views of La Concha Mountain and convenient access to an abundance of amenities within the Golf Valley of Nueva Andalucia.
