Costa Blanca, Benijofar

Situated on the outskirts of charming Benijófar, these new build villas offer an ideal balance between contemporary design and traditional Spanish living. Situated in the heart of the Costa Blanca, Benijófar is just a 30-minute drive from Alicante and its international airport, while golden sandy beaches are just a short drive away. In addition, there are two renowned golf courses just a 10-minute drive away, making it a prime location for both sun and sport lovers.

Each villa is set on a spacious plot of over 400m², complete with a private 7x3.5m swimming pool and a practical layout of 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, all on one level. Optional extras such as a solarium and storage room offer further flexibility. The properties have been built with attention to detail and feature high-quality finishes including Schüco windows, motorised shutters, solar panels and an automatic garden irrigation system.

Benijofar itself is a picturesque town known for its vibrant fiestas, weekly markets and charming town square. It is located next to Ciudad Quesada, where you will find a wide range of amenities including restaurants, bars, shops, a water park and a country club.

These villas offer the perfect place to enjoy the Mediterranean sun, sea and tranquility all year round, with the comfort of modern amenities and your own private pool in a traditional Spanish setting.
