Unique location with the best climate in Europe

Located in Torrox, in the eastern Axarquía region of the province of Málaga, this municipality is known as the place with the best climate in Europe. Torrox is divided into two parts: the charming village of Torrox and Torrox Costa, where you will find a beautiful promenade with an iconic viewpoint and lighthouse.

The properties are located on a hill, giving you panoramic views of the Mediterranean Sea. Just 1500 metres from the beach, the proximity to the N-340 provides a scenic coastal road that connects the entire region. Malaga is just 50km away and popular Nerja is just 15km away, making this location ideal for both those seeking peace and quiet and those looking for a bit of adventure.

Peace and comfort on the coast

The peaceful location makes it an ideal place to live, thanks to its proximity to Malaga and its excellent connection to the A-7 motorway. For families, this area is perfect for spending the summer away from the hustle and bustle of the more touristy coastal towns. The promenade offers several playgrounds for children, green areas for walking pets and a relaxed atmosphere that you won't find anywhere else.
