Living by the sea takes on a new meaning in this beautiful first line apartment in Altea, located directly on the idyllic Playa de la Roda. From the living room, kitchen and master bedroom you can enjoy a beautiful view of the Mediterranean Sea, while the spacious covered terrace forms a perfect extension of the living space. Thanks to its south-east orientation, the apartment is bathed in natural light all day long, which contributes to the warm and relaxing atmosphere.

The interior has recently been completely renovated and exudes modern comfort.
