Costa del Sol, Benahavis

Welcome to an architectural masterpiece, designed by the renowned Carlos Lamas and refined down to the smallest detail with interior creations by La Albaida. Situated in the exclusive and secure community of Lomas de La Quinta, this impressive south-facing villa offers breathtaking panoramic sea views and a perfect balance between sleek design, comfort and functionality.

Spread over three floors – connected by a stylish elevator – the experience begins upon entering the top floor. Here you are greeted by an imposing entrance hall with double height ceilings and four spacious bedrooms, each with an elegant and serene feel.

The ground floor is all about stylish living and entertaining. Think a cozy TV lounge, an atmospheric living room with a generous fireplace and a fully equipped Modulnova designer kitchen. For the wine lover, there is an impressive walk-in wine cellar. The outdoor spaces are equally impressive: an outdoor kitchen, a spacious dining area and an infinity pool overlooking the Mediterranean Sea make this level the heart of Mediterranean outdoor living.

The lower floor is entirely dedicated to relaxation and entertainment. Two additional bedrooms, an entertainment lounge with cocktail bar, a heated indoor pool, fitness room and a wellness area with sauna offer a luxurious retreat for body and mind. A private garage with space for three cars completes the picture.
