Costa del Sol, Fuengirola

In the heart of bustling Fuengirola, an exclusive new residential complex is emerging that cleverly combines modern city living, comfort and sustainability. This dynamic coastal town – beloved by both Spanish and international residents – offers everything within easy reach: excellent schools, supermarkets, sports centres, a zoo, shopping centres and even a water park.

The development comprises 99 stylish apartments with a choice of one, two or three bedrooms, ranging from approximately 60 to 120 square metres. Every detail of this residential complex exudes quality, from the contemporary architectural design to the high-quality materials and finishes. Large windows provide an abundance of natural light, while excellent thermal and acoustic insulation ensures comfort and tranquillity all year round.

The properties are equipped with fully fitted kitchens equipped with high-quality built-in appliances, including an induction hob, electric oven and extractor fan. The compact quartz worktop and the energy-efficient aerothermal system for hot water supply complete the picture. Air conditioning is included, and there is even the possibility of extending the home.

The communal areas are designed with an eye for well-being, meeting and a healthy lifestyle – a place where you don't just live, but really live. Whether you are looking for a smart investment, a second home or a permanent home base in southern Spain, this project offers a comfortable and future-oriented way of living.
